RE: Christopher Quigley, Respondent
Registered Representative
CRD No. 5145716

Pursuant to Rule 9216 of Nasdaq PHLX LLC ("Phlx") Code of Procedure, Christopher Quigley ("Quigley" or "Respondent") submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, Phlx will not bring any future actions against the Respondent alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings, and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of Phlx, or to which Phlx is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by Phlx:

BACKGROUND

Quigley entered the securities industry in 1997 as a clerk with a former member organization of the Phlx. He then worked for multiple Phlx-member firms as a clerk before joining J.A.K. Securities, Inc. ("JAK" or the "Firm"). He has been a clerk with JAK since February 2003. He holds FE (Floor Employee), GS (General Securities) and TD (Securities Trader) registrations with Phlx. Quigley has no prior disciplinary history.

SUMMARY

1. On January 5, 2016 (the "Trade Date"), while the Phlx simultaneously operated two versions of its Floor Based Management System ("FBMS-1" and "FBMS-2", respectively)¹, Quigley repeatedly attempted to execute a customer order to cross 1,443 call options of XYZ² in FBMS-2, but FBMS-2 rejected each attempt, generating error

¹ FBMS is the Phlx's electronic order entry and audit trail system that allows Phlx floor brokers, registered options traders and specialists to enter, route and report options transactions.

² "XYZ" is a generic identifier used to represent the company whose securities were the subject of the transaction in question.

messages that indicated that there was a customer order on the Phlx's Limit Order Book (the "Book") that had priority over Quigley's XYZ order. Unable to execute the order in FBMS-2, Quigley systematized and executed the order in FBMS-1, which resulted in him trading ahead, and failing to honor the priority, of the customer order on the Book, in violation of Phlx Rules 119, 120, 707, 1014³, and 1067.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

2. Phlx Rule 119, provides, in relevant part, that "[t]he highest bid shall have precedence in all cases. Where bids are made at the same price, the priority and precedence shall be determined in accordance with the following rules:

Precedence of first bid

(a) When a bid is clearly established as the first made at a particular price, the maker shall be entitled to priority and shall have precedence on the next sale at that price, up to the number of shares of stock or principal amount of bonds specified in the bid, irrespective of the number of shares of stock or principal amount of bonds specified in such bid. . . .

3. Phlx Rule 120 provides, in relevant part: "[t]he lowest offer shall have precedence in all cases. Where offers are made at the same price the priority and precedence shall be determined in the same manner specified in Rule 119"
4. On the Trade Date, Phlx Rule 1014(b)(i)(A) required broker-dealers orders to yield priority to customer orders.
5. Phlx Rule 1067 provides that "[t]he highest bid and the lowest offer shall have precedence in all cases."
6. Phlx Rule 707 prohibits members from engaging in conduct inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade.
7. On January 5, 2016, JAK received an order from a customer to cross 1,443 XYZ February 7 call options at $0.42. At 12:07:08, Quigley systematized the XYZ order in FBMS-2 and gave the order to a floor broker, who then verbally represented the order in a trading crowd. At 12:07:26, with the PBBO for the XYZ February call options at $0.40 - $0.50 and the NBBO at $0.40 - $0.45, Quigley attempted to execute the order at split prices in FBMS-2: 577 contracts at $0.45 and 866 contracts at $0.40.
8. However, FBMS-2 rejected his attempted execution. He received the "NL w/R Nakd by Trading System - Must-be-satisfied volume validation failed" pop-up alert, which signified that a customer order with priority over Quigley's order was resting on the Book.

³ Phlx Rule 1014 was superseded and replaced by Phlx Rule Options 8, Section 25 on April 16, 2019.

9. At 12:07:52 and 12:08:25, Quigley again tried to execute the order at the same split prices and sizes, but each time FBMS-2 sent the same pop-up rejection alert. Quigley made at least seven more attempts over the next five minutes to execute the trade in FBMS-2, but as before, FBMS-2 blocked each such attempt and generated the same pop-up alert.
10. At the time of each attempted execution and rejection, the Book was displaying a customer order with a bid of $0.40, which had priority over Quigley's 866 contracts he wished to execute at that same price.
11. At 12:14:58, unable to secure an execution of the order in FBMS-2, Quigley systematized the order in FBMS-1. At 12:15:26, with the PBBO still at $0.40 - $0.50, and the NBBO still at $0.40 - $0.45, Quigley executed 866 XYZ February 7 call options in FBMS-1 at $0.40, trading ahead of the customer order resting on the Book. At 12:15:33, Quigley executed the remaining 577 XYZ February 7 call options in FBMS-1 at $0.45.
12. The conduct described in paragraphs seven through 11 constitutes violations of Phlx Rules 119, 120, 707, 1014, and 1067.

B. Respondent also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- A censure and a fine in the amount of $10,000.

Respondent agrees to pay the monetary sanction upon notice that this AWC has been accepted and that such payment is due and payable. It has submitted a Payment Information form showing the method by which it proposes to pay the fine imposed.

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that it is unable to pay, now or at any time hereafter, the monetary sanction imposed in this matter.

The sanctions imposed herein shall be effective on a date set by FINRA staff.
