Bank of America (the “Issuer”) has issued Capped Leveraged Index Return Notes ("Notes") linked to the S&P 500 Index (the “Index”). The Notes were priced at $10 each and mature on May 25, 2012.

The Notes are senior unsecured debt securities and are not guaranteed or insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or secured by collateral. The Notes will rank equally with all of the Issuer’s other unsecured and unsubordinated debt, and any payments due on the Notes, including any repayment of principal, will be subject to the credit risk of the Issuer. The Notes provide a leveraged return for investors, subject to a cap, if the level of the Index increases moderately from the Starting Value of the Index, determined on the pricing date, to the Ending Value of the Index, determined during the Maturity Valuation Period. Investors must be willing to forgo interest payments on the Notes and be willing to accept a return that is capped or a repayment that is less, and potentially significantly less, than the Original Offering Price of the Notes.

At maturity, investors will receive:

- If the Ending Value of the Index is greater than the Starting Value of the Index:

  \[ 10 + \left( 10 \times 200\% \times \frac{\text{Ending Value} - \text{Starting Value}}{\text{Starting Value}} \right) \]

  Payment will not exceed the Capped Value of $12.916.

- If the Ending Value of the Index is less than the Starting Value of the Index, but greater than the Threshold Value (961.16):

  \[ 10 \]

- If the Ending Value of the Index is less than the Threshold Value:
$10 - \[$10 \times 100\% \times ((\text{Threshold Value} - \text{Ending Value})/\text{Starting Value})]\n
The Starting Value of the Index is 1,067.95. The Ending Value of the Index will be determined closer to the maturity date.

Please see the prospectus for the Notes for more details regarding the calculations and details regarding the Index.

It is expected that the market value of the Notes will depend substantially on the value of the Index and may be affected by a number of other interrelated factors including, among other things: the general level of interest rates, the volatility of the Index, the time remaining to maturity, the dividend yield of the stocks comprising the Index, and the credit ratings of the Issuer.
