BACKGROUND INFORMATION ON THE FUNDS

The Active Weighting Funds ETF Trust (the “Trust”) is a management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”), consisting of several investment portfolios. This circular relates only to the Funds listed above (each, a “Fund” and together, the “Funds”). The shares of the Fund are referred to herein as “Shares.” Active Weighting Advisors LLC (the “Advisor”) is the investment adviser to the Funds.

Republican Policies Fund

The Republican Policies Fund’s (“GOP”) investment objective is to seek capital appreciation by investing in market segments that the Advisor believes will be impacted by the enactment of Republican Policies (as defined below).

GOP is an actively managed ETF that seeks to achieve its objective by investing, including both long and short positions, primarily in equity securities traded in U.S. markets.

GOP typically holds equity securities of a limited number of issuers, generally 30 to 75, and invests in issuers with a market capitalization greater than $250 million USD. GOP may, to a limited extent, invest in equity securities traded in non-U.S. markets, including emerging market equity securities, as well as fixed income securities, derivatives, currencies, and commodities. GOP will be subject to active turnover, generally on a quarterly basis, throughout market cycles based on the outlook of the Advisor. At the discretion of the Advisor, GOP may actively add and remove positions intra-quarter based on changing market conditions.

GOP takes positions in securities that are expected by the Advisor to appreciate in value as a result of U.S. government actions that reflect Republican Policies identified by the Advisor. The Advisor defines, based upon its discretionary analysis, the beliefs, party platforms, and executive and legislative priorities of the Republican party as “Republican Policies.” The Advisor incorporates both the federal and state levels of government in its analysis of the Republican party, with the primary focus being on the federal level of government.

The Advisor considers a policy to be a legislative action, executive action, or regulatory action that changes or will change how: (1) companies operate within a specific sector; (2) individuals interact with companies, the government, or each other; and/or (3) companies and individuals are regulated and supervised by U.S. government agencies. As of the date of this Prospectus, examples of Republican Policies include, but are not limited to, bills, regulations, and/or governmental guidelines that: decrease the regulatory requirements of companies operating within the Financials sector; increase the amount of the U.S. government budget allocated to the Aerospace and Defense industry; reduce the regulatory requirements associated with or provide incentives related to the drilling and production functions of the Energy sector in order to promote U.S. energy independence; Strengthen or enforce immigration laws, such as restricting the number of available immigrant visas or increasing the legal consequences for individuals violating immigration laws; and decrease the U.S. corporate income tax rate.

The Advisor will, based on its discretionary analysis, identify policies it views as priorities for the Republican Party. At any given time, the Advisor generally identifies four to ten Republican Policies for consideration in constructing GOP’s portfolio. The Republican Policies selected for consideration may, but are not required to include the above examples.

Democratic Policies Fund

The Democratic Policies Fund’s (“DEMS”) investment objective is to seek capital appreciation by investing in market segments that the Advisor believes will be impacted by the enactment of Democratic Policies (as defined below).

DEMS is an actively managed ETF that seeks to achieve its objective by investing, including both long and short positions, primarily in equity securities traded in U.S. markets.

DEMS typically holds equity securities of a limited number of issuers, generally 30 to 75, and invests in issuers with a market capitalization greater than $250 million USD. DEMS may, to a limited extent, invest in equity securities traded in non-U.S. markets, including emerging market equity securities, as well as fixed income securities, derivatives, currencies, and commodities. DEMS will be subject to active turnover, generally on a quarterly basis, throughout market cycles based on the outlook of the Advisor. At the discretion of the Advisor, DEMS may actively add and remove positions intra-quarter based on changing market conditions.

DEMS takes positions in securities that are expected by the Advisor to appreciate in value as a result of U.S. government actions that reflect Democratic Policies identified by the Advisor. The Advisor defines, based upon its discretionary analysis, the beliefs, party platforms, and executive and legislative priorities of the Democratic party as “Democratic Policies.” The Advisor incorporates both the federal and state levels of government in its analysis of the Democratic party, with the primary focus being on the federal level of government.

The Advisor considers a policy to be a legislative action, executive action, or regulatory action that changes or will change how: (1) companies operate within a specific sector; (2) individuals interact with companies, the government, or each other; and/or (3) companies and individuals are regulated and supervised by U.S. government agencies. As of the date of this Prospectus, examples of Democratic Policies include, but are not limited to, bills, regulations, and/or governmental guidelines that: increase the opportunity of immigrants to obtain visas or attain U.S. citizenship; increase the ability of individuals to attend higher education programs; are expected to result in an increase in the wages and incomes of U.S. workers, such as increases in minimum wage rates; reduce the regulatory requirements associated with or provide incentives related to clean and renewable energy and environmental protections; implement a progressive tax system in the U.S.; and introduce a single payer health care system or increase the ability of individuals to obtain health insurance.

The Advisor will, based on its discretionary analysis, identify policies it views as priorities for the Democratic Party. At any given time, the Advisor generally identifies four to ten Democratic Policies for consideration in constructing DEMS's portfolio. The Democratic Policies selected for consideration may, but are not required to include the above examples.

U.S. Tax Reform Fund

The U.S. Tax Reform Fund's ("TAXR") objective is to seek capital appreciation by investing in market segments that the Advisor believes will be impacted by the enactment of changes to the U.S. Tax Code.

TAXR is an actively managed ETF that seeks to achieve its objective of capital appreciation by investing, including both long and short positions, primarily in equity securities traded in the U.S. markets. Under normal circumstances TAXR will invest at least 80% of its total assets in the securities of issuers domiciled in the U.S. TAXR's 80% investment policy is non-fundamental and requires 60 days' prior written notice to shareholders before it can be changed without shareholder approval.

TAXR typically holds securities of a limited number of issuers, generally 30 to 75, and invests in issuers with a market capitalization greater than $250 million USD. TAXR may, to a limited extent, invest in equity securities traded in non-U.S. markets, including emerging market securities, as well as fixed income securities, derivatives, currencies, and commodities. TAXR will be subject to active turnover, generally on a quarterly basis, throughout market cycles based on the outlook of the Advisor. At the discretion of the Advisor, TAXR may actively add and remove positions intra-quarter based on changing market conditions.

TAXR takes positions in securities that are expected by the Advisor to appreciate in value as a result of proposed changes in U.S. tax policy and regulations that change the way taxable income is currently calculated and/or the tax rate at which taxable income is taxed ("Tax Reform Themes"), regardless of whether the change increases or decreases the tax burden on individuals or issuers domiciled in the U.S. The Advisor defines Tax Reform Themes as bills, rules, or regulations that change: the tax rate at which a corporation's or individual's income is taxed; the method under which a U.S. company's international income is taxed in or repatriated to the U.S.; the amount of import or export taxes or tariffs levied in the U.S. on products from an industry or foreign country; and the current Internal Revenue Code, primarily relating to the use of tax credits and expense categories allowed as deductions.

The Advisor will, based on its discretionary analysis, identify themes it views as Tax Reform Themes. At any given time, the Advisor generally identifies four to ten Tax Reform Themes for consideration in constructing TAXR's portfolio.

For more information regarding each Fund's investment strategy, please read the prospectus for the Funds.

As described more fully in the Trust's prospectus and Statement of Additional Information ("SAI"), the Funds issue and redeem Shares at net asset value ("NAV") only in large blocks of 25,000 Shares (each block of Shares called a "Creation Unit"). As a practical matter, only broker-dealers or large institutional investors with creation and redemption agreements (called Authorized Participants) can purchase or redeem these Creation Units. Except when aggregated in Creation Units, the Shares may not be redeemed with the Funds.

Shares are held in book-entry form, which means that no Share certificates are issued. The Depository Trust Company or its nominee is the record owner of all outstanding Shares of the Funds and is recognized as the owner of all Shares for all purposes.

The NAV per Share for each Fund is computed by dividing the value of the net assets of the Fund (i.e., the value of its total assets less total liabilities) by the total number of Shares outstanding. Expenses and fees are accrued daily and taken into account for purposes of determining NAV. The NAV of each Fund is determined each business day after the close of trading (ordinarily 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time or "ET") of the New York Stock Exchange. Any assets or liabilities denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar are converted into U.S. dollars at the current market rates on the date of valuation as quoted by one or more sources.

The registration statement for the Funds describes the various fees and expenses for the Funds' Shares. For a more complete description of the Funds and the underlying indexes, visit the Funds' website at www.eventshares.com.

In addition, members and member

Any NASDAQ, BX or PHLX member or member organization carrying an omnibus account for a non-member broker-dealer is required to inform such non-member that execution of an order to purchase Shares for such omnibus account will be deemed to constitute agreement by the non-member to make such written description available to its customers on the same terms as are directly applicable to NASDAQ members, BX members and PHLX members or member organizations under this rule.

Upon request of a customer, NASDAQ members, BX members and PHLX members or member organizations shall provide a copy of the prospectus.

EXEMPTIVE, INTERPRETIVE AND NO-ACTION RELIEF UNDER FEDERAL SECURITIES REGULATIONS

The SEC has issued exemptive, interpretive or no-action relief from certain provisions of rules under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act") regarding trading in the above mentioned exchange-traded Funds.

REGULATION M EXEMPTIONS

Generally, Rules 101 and 102 of Regulation M prohibit any "distribution participant" and its "affiliated purchasers" from bidding for, purchasing, or attempting to induce any person to bid for or purchase any security which is the subject of a distribution until after the applicable restricted period, except as specifically permitted in Regulation M. The provisions of the Rules apply to underwriters, prospective underwriters, brokers, dealers, and other persons who have agreed to participate or are participating in a distribution of securities.

The SEC has granted an exemption from Rule 101 under Regulation M to permit persons participating in a distribution of shares of the above-mentioned Funds to engage in secondary market transactions in such shares during their participation in such a distribution. In addition, the SEC has granted relief under Regulation M to permit persons who may be deemed to be participating in the distribution of Shares of the above-mentioned Funds (i) to purchase securities for the purpose of purchasing Creation Unit Aggregations of Fund Shares and (ii) to tender securities for redemption in Creation Unit Aggregations. Further, the SEC has clarified that the tender of Fund Shares to the Funds for redemption does not constitute a bid for or purchase of any of the Funds' securities during the restricted period of Rule 101. The SEC has also granted an exemption pursuant to paragraph (e) of Rule 102 under Regulation M to allow the redemption of Fund Shares in Creation Unit Aggregations during the continuous offering of Shares.

CUSTOMER CONFIRMATIONS FOR CREATION OR REDEMPTION OF FUND SHARES (SEC RULE 10B-10)

Broker-dealers who handle purchases or redemptions of Fund Shares in Creation Unit size for customers will be permitted to provide such customers with a statement of the number of Creation Unit Aggregations created or redeemed without providing a statement of the identity, number and price of shares of the individual securities tendered to a Fund for purposes of purchasing Creation Unit Aggregations (“Deposit Securities”) or the identity, number and price of shares to be delivered by the Trust for the Fund to the redeeming holder (“Redemption Securities”). The composition of the securities required to be tendered to the Fund for creation purposes and of the securities to be delivered on redemption will be disseminated each business day and will be applicable to requests for creations or redemption, as the case may be, on that day. This exemptive relief under Rule 10b-10 with respect to creations and redemptions is subject to the following conditions:

- 1) Confirmations to customers engaging in creations or redemptions must state that all information required by Rule 10b-10 will be provided upon request;
- 2) Any such request by a customer for information required by Rule 10b-10 will be filed in a timely manner, in accordance with Rule 10b-10(c);
- 3) Except for the identity, number and price of shares of the component securities of the Deposit Securities and Redemption Securities, as described above, confirmations to customers must disclose all other information required by Rule 10b-10(a).

SEC RULE 14E-5

An exemption from Rule 14e-5 has been granted to permit any person acting as a dealer-manager of a tender offer for a component security of a Fund (1) to redeem Fund Shares in Creation Unit Aggregations from the issuer that may include a security subject to such tender offer and (2) to purchase Fund Shares during such tender offer. In addition, a no-action position has been taken under Rule 14e-5 if a broker-dealer acting as a dealer-manager of a tender offer for a security of a Fund purchases or arranges to purchase such securities in the secondary market for the purpose of tendering such securities to purchase one or more Creation Unit Aggregations of Shares, if made in conformance with the following:

- 1) such bids or purchases are effected in the ordinary course of business, in connection with a basket of 20 or more securities in which any security that is the subject of a distribution, or any reference security, does not comprise more than 5% of the value of the basket purchased; or
- 2) purchases are effected as adjustments to such basket in the ordinary course of business as a result of a change in the composition of the underlying index; and
- 3) such bids or purchases are not effected for the purpose of facilitating such tender offer.

Section 11(d)(1); SEC Rules 11d1-1 and 11d1-2

Section 11(d)(1) of the Act generally prohibits a person who is both a broker and a dealer from effecting any transaction in which the broker-dealer extends credit to a customer on any security which was part of a new issue in the distribution of which he participated as a member of a selling syndicate or group within thirty days prior to such transaction. The SEC has clarified that Section 11(d)(1) does not apply to broker-dealers that are not Authorized Participants (and, therefore, do not create Creation Unit Aggregations) that engage in both proprietary and customer transactions in Shares of the Fund in the secondary market, and for broker-dealer Authorized Participants that engage in creations of Creation Unit Aggregations. This relief is subject to specific conditions, including the condition that such broker-dealer (whether or not an Authorized Participant) does not, directly or indirectly, receive from the fund complex any payment, compensation or other economic incentive to promote or sell the Shares of a Fund to persons outside the fund complex, other than non-cash compensation permitted under NASD Rule 2830(l)(5)(A), (B) or (C). (See letter from Catherine McGuire, Chief Counsel, SEC Division of Market Regulation, to Securities Industry Association, Derivative Products Committee, dated November 21, 2005.) The SEC also has taken a no-action position under Section 11(d)(1) of the Act that broker-dealers may treat Shares of a Fund, for purposes of Rule 11d1-2, as "securities issued by a registered open-end investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act" and thereby extend credit or maintain or arrange for the extension or maintenance of credit on Shares that have been owned by the persons to whom credit is provided for more than 30 days, in reliance on the exemption contained in the rule.

SEC RULE 15C1-5 AND 15C1-6

The SEC has taken a no-action position with respect to Rule 15c1-5 and Rule 15c1-6 as to the required disclosure of control by a broker or dealer with respect to creations and redemptions of Fund Shares and secondary market transactions therein. (See letter from Catherine McGuire, Chief Counsel, SEC Division of Market Regulation, to Securities Industry Association, Derivative Products Committee, dated November 21, 2005.)
