RE: Bell-Ringing Ceremony- May 22 - Student winners of the national Stock Market Game

Four Philadelphia Public School high school students, whose team won the most money from mock investments as participants in the national Stock Market Game, will ring the opening bell on Thursday, May 22.

The Northeast High School 12th graders competed with more than 50 schools in nine regions in the city of Philadelphia. They turned their $100,000 investment into $133,299 over a period of 10 weeks.

Remarks will begin promptly at 9:20 a.m.
