

Memo #: 2053-08

MEMORANDUM

TO: All Option Members, Member Organizations and ROTs
DATE: December 9, 2008
RE: Sector Index and World Currency Options Data Changes

NASDAQ OMX Global Index Watch

PHLX Sector Index data such as daily changes to the composition and weightings, corporate actions and historical data has become part of the new NASDAQ OMX Global Index Watch ("Index Watch") but will also remain on the current websites until a yet to be determined date in the first quarter of 2009. An announcement concerning the definitive date for the transfer of that data into Index Watch is forthcoming.

To learn more about the Index Watch, refer to the NASDAQ OMX Global Index Watch web page or contact NASDAQ OMX Global Data Products at +1 301 978 5307. In addition, please review NASDAQ Vendor Alert #2008 - 96.

For questions about the PHLX Sector Index transition to Index Watch, please contact Walt Smith at 215-496-5532.

NASDAQ OMX Global Index Data Services

In addition to the above changes in service, the real-time and delayed dissemination of the spot and settlement values for the PHLX Sector Indices and the World Currency Options will move from the PBOT Market Data Distribution Network and Network B of the Consolidated Tape Association to the NASDAQ OMX Global Index Data Services ("GIDS"). This transition will also occur in the first quarter of 2009 and should be seamless to all Option Members, Member Organizations and ROTs.

To learn more about the NASDAQ OMX Global Index Data Service, refer to the NASDAQ OMX Global Index Service specifications on the NASDAQ Trader[®] website or contact NASDAQ OMX Global Data Products at +1 301 978 5307.
