ISE today began trading Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. Accelerated Return Bear Market Notes Linked to the AMEX Energy Select Sector Index. These notes were priced at $10 per note and mature on June 29, 2009.

As more fully set forth in the Prospectus Supplement, each $10 principal amount of the securities will be deemed a “Unit” for purposes of trading and transfer. There will be no payments or redemptions prior to the maturity date. The Notes are designed for investors who believe that the level of the AMEX Energy Select Sector Index will decrease in value throughout the term of the notes. These notes are not principal protected and investors must accept that the return may be less than the $10 principal amount.

At maturity, investors will receive either of:

- If the Ending Value is less than or equal to the Starting Value of the AMEX Energy Select Sector Index, investors will receive:
  \[10 + 50 \times \frac{(Ending \ Value - Starting \ Value)}{Starting \ Value}\]
  Subject to the maximum payment at maturity of $12.00

- If the Ending Value is greater than the Starting Value but equal to or less than the Threshold Value, then investors will receive:
  \[10\]

- If the Ending Value is greater than the Starting Value of the AMEX Energy Select Sector Index, then investors will receive the greater of:
  i. $0
  ii. \[10 - 10 \times \frac{(Ending \ Value - Threshold \ Value)}{Starting \ Value}\]

The Starting Index value of the AMEX Energy Select Sector Index equals: 805.73
The Threshold Value equals: 886.3030

It is expected that the market value of the ICT will depend substantially on the value of the AMEX Energy Select Sector Index and can be affected by a number of other interrelated factors including, among other things: the general level of interest rates, the volatility of the Index, the time remaining to maturity, the dividend yields of the stocks comprising the Index, and the credit ratings of the Issuer.
